

LET'S MAKE ONIGIRI (RICE BALL)

Onigiri (Japanese rice balls) are one of the most popular and familiar Japanese foods, often eaten as a light meal or snack.

For this event, we will prepare several kinds of fillings so you can enjoy making and tasting different onigiri.

Event Details:

Day & Time: Thu., January 15

(i) 12:40–13:10

(ii) 13:40–14:10

Kindly choose one of the above two sessions.

(Applying for both sessions is not allowed.)

Venue: International Student Lounge, West 1 Building, Ookayama Campus

Capacity: 15 people for each session

Admission: FREE

Eligibility: Science Tokyo students

Application: Please apply via the QR code

by January 12.

(i) 12:40–13:10

(ii) 13:40–14:10

Note 1: You should bring your mask so as to put on it during making onigiri for keeping hygiene.

Note 2: If there's something you can't eat, please let us know via Google form.

Inquiry: Global Education Division / Science Tokyo
gedu.w1@adm.isct.ac.jp